Envision Networks® Classic Rock Live Celebrating the 37th Annual World Day of Music
21 songs recorded live in concert from 21 countries on June 21

(June 2019) – In honor of the World Day of Music, Envision Networks® Classic Rock Live will feature music recorded from all around the globe. Join host Pierre Robert the weekend of June 21st as he travels to 21 countries for 21 songs recorded live in concert.

“There are nearly a thousand different languages spoken around the world,” said Steve Black, host of The Chop Shop and Chop Shop Classic. “Yet, music is able to connect with every culture. With that spirit in mind, Pierre and I welcome you to celebrate America’s greatest cultural export; rock & roll, presented in a uniquely global setting.”

Among the highlights are Bruce Springsteen playing in South Africa, Kiss in Australia, AC/DC on stage in Russia, the Rolling Stones in India plus live music recorded in Japan, France, England, Ireland, Germany, Mexico, Brazil and more.

June 21st marks the 37th annual celebration of World Music Day which is now celebrated in over 100 countries.
